Brief Description Please describe your role, how you interact with the public, and what you wish to achieve at the show.

Some necessary rules

1. Camping on your displays: We strive to maintain a uniquely 1940s environment within the Camp side of the show. Anything used or displayed this side must be of the period. Post 1949 tentage, vehicles or equipment are not permitted. All modern vehicles must be parked in the main car park.
2. Free plastic camping: living history groups are entitled to 1 free pitch in public camping only if you have a static display on the Camp side. Please state this on your form, if required, so a space can be reserved for you.
3. Dress: All participants must be in period dress/uniform between 1000 and 1700hrs on show days.
4. Live firing: All live firing must be kept to the battlefield only.
5. No selling of merchandise is allowed on the Camp side. If you wish to sell your wares, please book a trader pitch on the field.
6. Vehicle movements: No vehicle movements are permitted between 0915 and 1730hrs on show days unless they are:
  - a. part of a display/re-enactment and have been authorised for movement by the event manager and will be accompanied by committee or security.
  - b. in response to an emergency.
In all cases, vehicle movement must be sanctioned and subject to security/steward escort.
